U.S. 24 Lane Closure near Bartonville

PEORIA – The Illinois Department of Transportation announces that the right lane of northbound U.S. 24 will be closed, approximately one mile north of the intersection with IL 9 near Bartonville in Peoria County, beginning Monday, May 1.

The closure is necessary for a shoulder and slope repair project, which is expected to be completed by early July.

Please slow down and use extreme caution while driving through all work zones.
